Germany Continued.

This Empire is full of Sovereign Princes & Counts, or rather Prime Nobility, every one of whom is more free and absolute, than Several crown'd Heads.

So much Power has been looked upon by Several Emperors with an evil Eye: but they have not Dar'd to dissolve, or impair it, for fear of distracting all Germany & ruining themselves into the Bargain; and therefore every Emperor at his Coronation does not Scruple to confirm all these Rights & Privileges to the Empire.

Their exact Number cannot be fix'd, because upon the Death, or Extinction of their Families, their Estates and Rights devolve to others so that tis no extraordinary thing for one Prince to have two, or three Votes in the Dyets. The Number of those who have a right at this Day to sit in the Dyet of Ratisbon, are Computed to be at least 200.

Of these Sovereigns, next to the Emperor are the 9 Electoral Princes, then the Dukes of Lunenberg, Mecklenburg, Langraves of Hesse &c. the Prince of East Friesland, Anhalt, &c. the Counts of Hanau, Solms, &c. with many others as the Archbishop of Salzburg, the Bishop of Munster Liege, &c. together with some Abbots & the great Master of the Teutonick Order, &c.

These have Sovereign Authority in their own Estates & govern their Subjects without cognizance of the Emperor.

Of these Provinces the first that enter'd into an Alliance for their common Safety, were Holland & Zealand Anno 1576. Being driven thereto by the Cruel & Violent Usage they met with from the Spanish Government.

The Example of these two Provinces drew several others to unite with them, so that in 1581, the Seven Provinces took up Arms against the Spaniards under the Conduct of Maurice Prince of Orange, who by the Assistance of Providence & the Succours from England & France, retriev'd the Affairs of y.e States, & forced their haughty Masters to acknowledge them a free & Independent People. From such a small Beginning they are grown the most Tonerful Republic in the Universe.
