A MAP of the County of Antrim, from
ACTUAL SURVEY,
by
J. Lendrick
1780.
Engravd by S. Pyle.
Publishd as the Act directs, Jan.y 1st 1782.
North Lat: 54, 26.
DIRECTIONS
To find out the Proprietor of any House, that is here represented, look for the name of the Barony in which it is, then in the Reference Table look for the Barony or half Barony, and in a line with the same figure there, as that placed near the House, is the Proprietor's Name.
To find the Situation of any Gentleman's Seat, look for the Name in the Reference Table, by having recourse to the Alphabetical part of it, and in a line with the Name, is the Parish the House is in, as also the number of said House.
In like manner, by having found the Proprietor's Name of any particular Bleach Yard, the half Barony, Parish and Townland is also pointed out in the Reference Table.
The Author
Begs leave to acquaint the Subscribers, and the Publick in General that he has only inserted the original Names of Townlands as containd in the several Constablewicks; by which means many Names may be found wanting.
As the manner of spelling the Names of Townlands is quite arbitrary, & depends on a variety of unfavorable Circumstances, he hopes for Indulgence accordingly.
