

3 Stanwick Road
West Kensington
London

2 August 1890

Dear Sir

I have translated your clever and most touching book Doña Perfecta into English. If you like to have the M.S. published I shall be pleased to let you have it for a small sum. The word ought to take here or anywhere if brought out in a cheap and popular form.
As a credential that I am a competent writer of my own language I may mention I have been paid well for translating German tales for our Magazines - I have also published various tales which were well received under the name of my mother

Marissa Roscoe.

Hoping to hear from you
I remain Sir yours

Admiringly and faithfully

Alice L Quary