

7 Powis Square
Brighton
England

7. Feb. 1891

Dear Sir

I wrote to you some little time ago but having put no proper address I con-clude you never received my letter.

Being a great admirer of your books I have translated into English your Wona Perfecta.
I wish to know whether you would wish to purchase my copy for a small sum for publication in this country & in America, I am a professional writer & have frequently been paid for German translations & have published a good deal in our

English magazines - An Article of mine appears in "The Argosy" for this month under the title of "Medicines & Mysteries by Marissa Rosario" for I am of Spanish descent.

I think the publication of "Dona Perfecta" in this Country would be of infinite service - It is a most powerful exposure of a system of which Ireland is also still a stronghold.

As I read I could almost have thought I read of the State of things there -

Yours admirably,
Alice Quary -