

Sketch of the DISPOSITION of the ALLIES, under the Command of LIEUT. GENL. HILL, to surprize the Enemy in ARROYO MOLINOS on the morning of 28th Oct.
1811.
with PERMISSION of the QUARTER MASTER GENERAL.

A Situation of the Enemy when the Head of M. Gen. Howards Column reach'd the Point of the Mountain

B British Cavalry under Lt. Genl. Sir W. Erskine
In this Brilliant affair the Enemy lost or killed Wounded and Prisoners about 1800 Men while that of the Allies falls short of 100 Men

1 Mile.

Published by W. Taylor, Geographer to the King and to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, Charing Cross, January 1st 1812.