A circular liturgical calendar (rotunda) divided into seven segments representing the days of the week. The segments are labeled: DOMINICA (top), SECUNDA FERIA (top-right), TERTIA FERIA (right), QUARTA FERIA (bottom-right), QUINTA FERIA (bottom), SEXTA FERIA (bottom-left), and SABBA 70 (left). Each segment contains a grid of text, likely representing the Mass and Office readings for each day. The center of the rotunda features a circular illustration of a face with a bird perched on its forehead. The entire rotunda is enclosed in a decorative border with a scalloped edge.
